Privacy Policy

We value your business and trust you have placed with us. That is why we want to assure you that we are serious about keeping your personal information private before, during and after your business relationship with us. This notice describes our policy on collection and disclosure of your non-public personal information.

Categories of information collected

We collect personal information about you from:

- Applications or other forms you complete
- Your business dealings with us and the company

Categories of information disclosed

We may disclose the following personal information about you:

- Information from your application or other forms, such as your name and address
- Information about your transactions with us, such as your policy coverage, premiums, and history with us

To whom information is disclosed

We do not disclose any personal information about you to anyone unless allowed by law. We do not share your financial information with any other business to market products or services to you. However, when your current policy comes up for renewal, we may share information with other insurance companies in order to obtain competing quotes or to provide you with better coverage and/or more affordable coverage. If you wish to prevent that from happening, you may “opt out.” That term is explained below.

Explanation of your right to Opt-Out

If you do not want us to attempt to obtain better coverage and/or more affordable coverage from a different insurance company when your current policy comes up for renewal, you may tell us now. By “opting out,” you will instruct us not to share or disclose any personal information with other insurance companies for the purpose of obtaining renewal quotations. If you wish to opt out, complete and return the enclosed form. We may share information about you if we do not hear from you within 30 days. However, you may opt-out at any time. Even if you opt-out, we may still disclose information as allowed by law.

Confidentiality and security

We protect your non-public personal information. The only employees who have access to that information are those who must have it to provide products or services to you.

Access to and correction of your information

You may write to us if you have any questions about the information that we may have in our records about you. If you wish, you may inspect this information in person or receive a copy at a reasonable charge by sending us a written request. You can notify us in writing if you believe any information should be corrected, amended, or deleted. We will review and comply, if possible, with your request. We will either make the requested change, or explain why we could not do so. You may send your written request to us at Lewis and Lewis Insurance Agency, 11900 W. Olympic Blvd. #475, Los Angeles, CA 90064. All written requests must include your name, address, telephone number, policy/certificate number and a photocopy of a picture ID for identification purposes.
